

North Isles Landscape Partnership Scheme

Heritage Centres video series

Handout from talk by Katy Firth – Freelance Heritage Engagement Practitioner

In my talk I covered different activity types for various audiences. The following is list of useful links, broken down by activity type.

Talks and Lectures

www.facebook.com/xponorth/videos XpoNorth has done a couple of videos about how to stream live events.

Adult Workshops

maps.nls.uk/ - National Library of Scotland maps

Schools

<https://kidsinmuseums.org.uk/> - Kids in Museums

<https://archaeologyscotland.org.uk/heritage-resources-portal/> - Archaeology Scotland – Heritage Learning portal

Workshops for organised groups

<https://archaeologyscotland.org.uk/learning/heritage-hero-awards/> Heritage Hero Awards – free and flexible.

Family workshops

www.yac-uk.org/things-to-do - Young Archaeologists' Club has over 40 activity ideas to do with kids

<https://vimeo.com/367558253> - Animating Scapa 100 film

Exploring & Recording the landscape

<https://hiddenheritage.org.uk/explore/graveslab-photography/> - A project I worked on in Arrochar where volunteers were trained in using RTI (Reflectance Transformation Imaging)

<https://myinchinnan.org.uk/gravestone-map/interactive-map/> - Inchinnan Historical Interest Group created an interactive map of their graveyard.

Volunteers

<https://saltireawards.scot/> - Log young volunteer hours to get recognition for their work.

Heritage Trails

<https://issuu.com/shearerri> - You can have a look at the two trails I mentioned here